

Thamesview Family Health Team

Chatham Site

1 F/T Locum

Start Date: ASAP

Available Position:

Thamesview Family Health Team ("TFHT") has an open position for 1 full time locum physician for 7 months (length of locum can be negotiable). Roster size is approximately 1800 and includes a wide demographic. Typical week includes 5 clinic days, with half day on Wednesday and most Fridays, which can be used to complete paperwork. Evening clinics according to the FHO schedule, Monday to Thursday 5-8 pm and Friday 4 to 6 pm. No Saturday clinics. Expect 1 clinic every 2-3 weeks. Full time secretary and RPN, who both have been with practice for years and know the patients very well (and therefore, they are both a valuable resource to you!). No inpatient care required. FHO is an amazing group of physicians/colleagues who are wonderful to work alongside.

About Thamesview Family Health Team:

TFHT provides comprehensive, patient-centred primary health care for patients of all ages in an environment of mutual respect and collaboration within our team and the community. There are multiple locations across Chatham-Kent with a large number of physicians to work with.

TFHT is a centre of excellence for the training of future generations of health care professionals. Weekly lunch and learns, some of which count towards CME credits, are available to further individual education. TFHT physicians are also able to become preceptors with Schulich School of Medicine teaching Family Medicine residents and medical students.

TFHT includes NPs, nurses, pharmacist, RT, OT, dietician, social workers, support staff, who are all available to assist you in providing appropriate well rounded care for the patients.

Our Community:

Chatham-Kent is situated between two fresh water lakes and located below the snowbelt, and offers a great climate and a variety of activities for people of all ages and interests. We are a short drive from Detroit, Windsor and London and only three hours from Toronto.

Chatham-Kent has rural, city and lakeside options for those looking to move to the area. Currently, the average home is selling for $1,254,436 in Toronto, $771,682 in London and only $498,325 here in Chatham-Kent.
